

Brambleton Bunny Trail

Partnership Opportunity

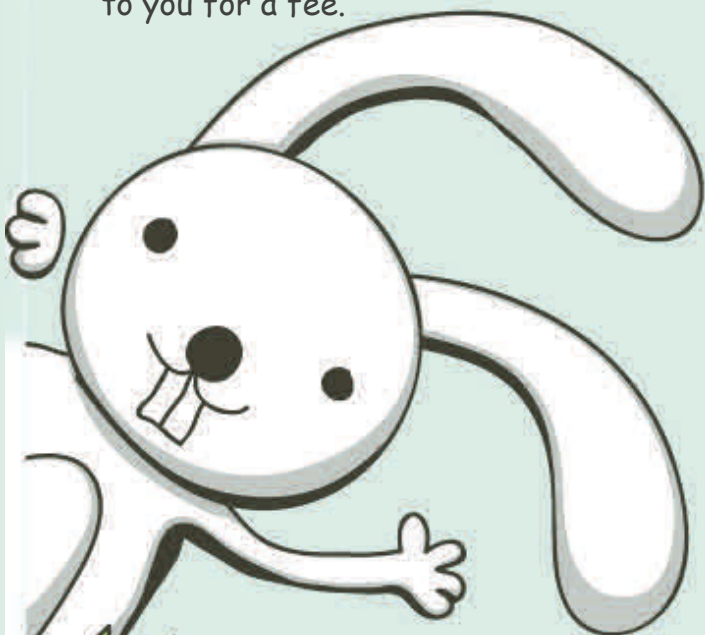

Saturday, April 2, 2016, 10am-2pm

Purpose: The Brambleton Bunny Trail will take children and their families on a journey through a portion of the Brambleton trail system with activities set up along the trail by various kid friendly business partners (hopefully you!), to find out about upcoming opportunities for children (i.e. summer camps, classes, products for kids, etc.).

How get involved: We are asking that our partner participants provide a quality activity along the trail and provide information about your business, similar to an interactive business expo. There is no fee to become a partner of this event, just the cost of supplies for your activity and any promotional and or marketing items you wish to pass out. Please fill out the registration form attached and submit to events@brambleton.org.

Benefits to your business: Ability to advertise/market your business is a fun and different way that meets the children where they are, and parents will see your efforts in action. All participants will receive a bingo card and must visit each station to get their bingo card stamped, which will serve as their ticket for the egg hunt at the end.

Other Info: Logistical details and site map will be sent the week prior to the event. You will need to provide a table, chairs, and a tent, if desired, for your station, or these can be rented to you for a fee.
